Photography	Camera Specifications: Students can have a DSLR, Mirrorless or high end compact cameras, as long as they have the ability to program in manual mode. They can look in the owner's manual or go online to see if they can put the camera in manual mode. When you look at the top of the camera where there is a dial, if there is a letter M, A, S, P, Av, or Tv the camera can be programmed. If the camera has a detachable lens, it is probably okay. Examples of cameras that are okay include: Sony Mirrorless, Sony interchangeable lens, and some compacts (Sony RX100) Nikon D series (Nikon D3200 and up) Canon - virtually any of the EOS Rebel series (Canon Rebel SL1 and up)				Prices Vary
